Review

First-Year Review (after at least 18 SCH and at least 1 year in the program) to include submission of written examples of research completed as part of the program and an oral presentation to the faculty about that research.

Possible results include Pass (sufficient progress), and Probation (inconsistent progress) with the chance for Re-review during the next semester. Those who do not pass the Re-review will be dismissed from the program. After the First-Year Review, a committee of faculty members is formed to provide mentorship and guidance, and students must attend at least two meetings per each long semester with that committee.

Final Examination

An oral examination consists of a presentation and defense of the Thesis for the M.A. to the Graduate Committee. Committee's response to the oral examination also takes into account the quality of the Thesis document. The oral exam may be repeated twice.
