

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

The act of registering denotes an implicit declaration of the student's acceptance of University regulations as outlined in the most recent issues of the catalog and student handbook. Failure to abide by university regulations will subject the student to appropriate disciplinary action as outlined in the Student Handbook. Students are responsible for official emails sent from University administration, departments, faculty, or staff to their university email account.

The University also expects the student to obey the law, show respect for properly constituted authority, perform contractual obligations, maintain absolute integrity and a high standard of individual honor in scholastic work, and maintain conduct appropriate for a community of scholars.
