

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student is admitted to candidacy for the master's degree when:

1. the degree audit is active;
2. all admission or other conditions, including unconditional admission status, have been met; and
3. at least twelve semester credit hours of coursework have been successfully completed.