Marketable Skills

Marketable skills prepare students for success in a variety of professional settings. Developed through academic coursework, co-curricular engagement, and extracurricular involvement, these skills include communication, critical thinking, teamwork, ethical reasoning, adaptability, and digital literacy. Whether directly related to a student's major or serving as complementary strengths, marketable skills enhance career readiness and reflect TWU's commitment to producing graduates who are prepared to thrive in today's dynamic workforce.

1. Understand and implement exercise programming to reduce disability, promote health, and prevent disease.
2. Demonstrate and interpret results from common exercise testing measures, including heart rate, blood pressure, ECG, and respiratory gas analysis.
3. Administer aspects of health-related physical fitness testing, and communicate results to clients.
