

POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE IN BILITERACY

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/literacy-and-learning/certificate-of-biliteracy/>

The Certificate of Biliteracy is a post-baccalaureate certification for any educator, such as ESL teachers, dual language teachers, elementary teachers, middle and high school teachers, world language teachers, literacy coaches, administrators, and any other educator, who is invested in the success of bilingual students' academic achievement.

The certificate consists of four courses that are currently offered in the Literacy and Learning department. For the certificate, the courses are offered with a focus on biliteracy. This certificate develops educational leaders who may or may not be bilingual themselves, yet are responsible for the literacy development of bilingual learners and consequently, possess knowledge on second language acquisition, bilingualism, and literacy theory in order to most effectively meet the educational needs of a multilingual population.

This is not a state certification, but a graduate certificate awarded by TWU.

Marketable Skills

Marketable skills prepare students for success in a variety of professional settings. Developed through academic coursework, co-curricular engagement, and extracurricular involvement, these skills include communication, critical thinking, teamwork, ethical reasoning, adaptability, and digital literacy. Whether directly related to a student's major or serving as complementary strengths, marketable skills enhance career readiness and reflect TWU's commitment to producing graduates who are prepared to thrive in today's dynamic workforce.

1. Design and deliver effective literacy instruction (including reading, writing, and oral language) to/with learners who are acquiring English as a second language.
2. Appropriately assess a learner who is acquiring English as a second language, including identifying reading, writing, and oral language assessments (formal and informal) that demonstrate what a learner can do in the additional language, English.
3. Design and deliver effective literacy instruction (including reading, writing, and oral language) in one or more languages other than English (LOTEs) or literacy instruction to support students' development in one or more LOTEs.
4. Appropriately assess a learner in one or more languages other than English (LOTEs).

Admissions

All students must meet the University requirements as outlined in the Admission to the TWU Graduate School (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/graduate-school/admission-graduate-school/>) section of the catalog.
