

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN TEACHING, LEADERSHIP, AND COLLABORATION

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/teacher-education/graduate-programs/teaching-leadership-and-collaboration/>

Marketable Skills

Marketable skills prepare students for success in a variety of professional settings. Developed through academic coursework, co-curricular engagement, and extracurricular involvement, these skills include communication, critical thinking, teamwork, ethical reasoning, adaptability, and digital literacy. Whether directly related to a student's major or serving as complementary strengths, marketable skills enhance career readiness and reflect TWU's commitment to producing graduates who are prepared to thrive in today's dynamic workforce.

1. Effectively design, implement, and evaluate instructional interventions focused on research-based strategies and results from targeted data collection that are used to improve pedagogy and/or andragogy practices.
2. Effectively propose, conduct, and evaluate independent action or clinical research based on reviews of current literature, needs in the field, and applicability.
3. Work collaboratively with students, families, colleagues, administrators, and community stakeholders to effect meaningful change within the community and appropriately use data to guide decisions and evaluate progress.