

POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATE IN CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT LITERATURE

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/slis/programs-admission-requirements/>

The Post-Master's Certificate in Children's and Young Adult Literature provides advanced instruction in children's and young adult literature. The program prepares professionals for careers in libraries and other settings that work with children and young adults. Students engage with literature that presents diverse and interesting characters and plots, explore multiple genres of literature, authors, illustrators, and subjects, and learn how these materials can serve children and young adults. The Post-Master's Certificate in Children's and Young Adult Literature program is available entirely online.
